

Lightning Safety

When thunder roars, go indoors!

Check the forecast before heading outdoors. Consider postponing activities if thunderstorms are expected.

Be sure to have a way to receive weather alerts, such as a mobile phone.

If a thunderstorm is in the area move to a substantial building or hard-topped metal vehicle.

Avoided using corded electronic devices and stay away from plumbing - lightning can travel through these!

For more information visit: weather.gov/safety/lightning

